

Cardiovascular Disease in LA County's Latino Population

Percentage of People That Have Ever Been Diagnosed with Heart Disease
Los Angeles County, 2003

Individuals Ever Diagnosed with Heart Disease by Race/Ethnicity and SPA (Service Planning Area), Los Angeles County, 2003

Source: California Health Interview Survey, 2003
AskCHIS: www.chis.ucla.edu

Percent of Adult (18+ years) with Two or More Risk Factors* for Cardiovascular Disease by Federal Poverty Level (FPL) in LA County, 2002-2003

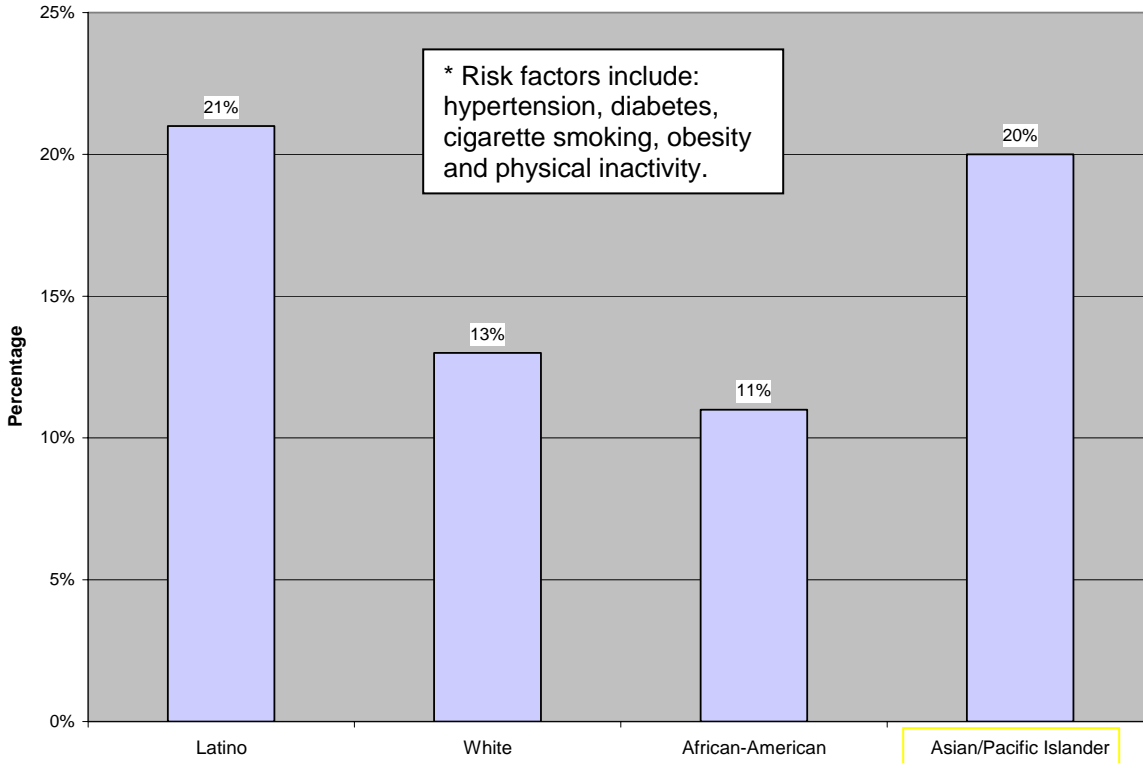

- Latinos with two or more risk factors were more likely to be uninsured (29%) and not have a regular source of health (20%) than were other groups. (LADHS)

Percentage of Adults (18+) with Two or More Risk Factors* for Cardiovascular Disease Who Are Uninsured, Los Angeles County, 2002-2003

Percentage of Adults (18+) with Two or More Risk Factors* for Cardiovascular Disease Who Have Not Had Any Health Care Visits
Within The Past Year, LA County, 2002-2003

Source (3 graphs above and info): Los Angeles County Dept of Health Services, Public Health, Many County Adults are at Risk for Heart Disease and Stroke, LA Health: July 2005.
<http://lapublichealth.org/ha/reports/habriefs/CardiovascularDiseas7CFEA.pdf> (pages 2-3)

Coronary Heart Disease Mortality by Race/Ethnicity,
Los Angeles County, 1991-2000

- There is a decline of heart disease in all ethnicity groups due to advancements in medical and surgical treatment as well and changes in lifestyle behaviors.

Source: Los Angeles County Department of Health Services, Public Health, Recent Health Trends in Los Angeles County, Office of Health Assessment and Epidemiology: June 2002.
<http://search.ladhs.org/wwwfiles/ph/hae/ha/healthtrends9.pdf> (page 3)